Comments for Public Posting: Rodeo and Livestock activities are the heart and soul of our western heritage. Some of the finest horsemen and cattlemen were from the Vaquero tradition of early California. To demean that tradition by city dwellers who know little, if anything, about the cowboy, vaquero and cattlemen traditions is a dishonor. Anyone who has spent any time around these activities will recognize the care and consideration the animals are shown. A city dweller trying to demonstrate their moral superiority by castigating an entire culture and history is self-centered and narrow minded!

Comments for Public Posting: Please do not ban rodeo. Rodeo animals are well taken care of. They receive high quality food, veterinarian care, shelter, love. There is not animal cruelty.
