Comments for Public Posting: Rodeo and bull riding (aka) animal abuse/torture for public entertainment and or profit has NO place in a civilized modern society, period! Ban these stupid outdated, inappropriate barbaric activities immediately! No empathetic, compassionate rational human would ever condone such atrocities committed to any sentient being, so why are these sick activities still legal? Los Angeles City Council: let's move our city a large step closer towards decency and progress and make L.A. more of it's namesake: the city of Angels!!! Ban rodeo and bull riding now. Thank you, Sam

Comments for Public Posting: There is enough cruelty and violence in this world already. Please consider that those watching this barbarism, including children, will see this as an acceptable way to treat the planets' creatures....it IS NOT. Now, more than ever, is the time for compassion, kindness and understanding on the route to which we must travel....to become the global family to which we all belong. Spare these creatures the cruelty and pain..that, sadly, only mankind practices. x

Comments for Public Posting: The rodeo industry boasts that the animals do not suffer, but, according to the twitter feed by Los Angeles Times reporter, Susanne Rust, the animals routinely suffer fractures, snapped spines, and crushed skulls, and the rodeo lies about it. We need to move with the times. There is no longer a place for this archaic activity. It is purely cruelty & abuse disguised as human entertainment. Has anyone asked the animals that are forced to perform in the rodeo how entertained they are? Lets stop being psychotic humans and become compassionate and caring ones instead.

Comments for Public Posting: I am writing to you regarding BULL RIDING and the RODEO. We all know that rodeo is cruel. I am not talking just about broken spines and broken legs – but the WHOLE experience. Whatever you may think about animals, you will agree that they feel fear and pain. And fear and pain is all they have in a rodeo. There is also something to be said about cruelty as entertainment. I don't mean that bad things happen in any form of entertainment or sport, I mean when cruelty IS the entertainment. US has 6 times (six times!) the murder rate of any western country in the world (and a lot of third world countries too). I would like to suggest to you that after “enjoying” a day out watching men tormenting the weakest, we may grow up to be entitled and cruel. This has to change – for our sake as much as for theirs.

Comments for Public Posting: It's time to ban rodeos in LA (& elsewhere). Bulls used in rodeos are prodded, whipped, and electric shocked, and routinely suffer debilitating injuries including torn ligaments, broken bones, and even paralysis. It is time for Los Angeles to take a stand and no longer allow these cruel events to take place in the city. As Professor J.B. Neilands (1921 - 2008) stated, "The time has come and gone when it is acceptable to regard this world as a resource to be exploited for the comfort of a single species." "The thinking man must oppose all cruel customs no matter how deeply rooted in tradition or surrounded by a halo... We need a boundless ethic which will also include the animals." -Dr. Albert Schweitzer (1875-1965).
