Comments for Public Posting: I Strongly support the Los Angeles rodeo ban. Rodeos are events of cruelty, and abuse to innocent animals. There is no excuse for this cruelty. To make matters worse, children often attend these rodeos, and they learn that it is perfectly all right to abuse animals for entertainment. And we wonder why there is such violence in our country. Rodeos must be banned.

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeos and bull riding events should not be allowed to occur in the city, and they should be banned more broadly. Rodeos are not consistent with a modern city that is concerned about animal welfare. Rodeos are antiquated and involve people forcing animals to engage in unnatural behavior in an unnatural environment. People running the event treat the animals harshly (using electric prods, for example) and animals are often seriously or fatally injured for nothing more than people's entertainment. Please do better and do not permit such events in the city.

IMPORTANT REMINDER: In December 2023, the Los Angeles City Council voted YES UNANIMOUSLY to ban rodeos. Unfortunately, the ban is not in place yet because we are waiting for language to be amended in Committee. While the City Council drags their feet, the animals continue to suffer. The rodeo industry boasts that the animals do not suffer, but, according to this twitter feed by Los Angeles Times reporter, Susanne Rust, the animals routinely suffer fractures, snapped spines, and crushed skulls, and the rodeo lies about it.
