Comments for Public Posting: Do not eradicate the cultural heritage of the Vaqueros, black cowboys like Bill Pickett, and Indigenous Peoples' equine tradition by banning rodeos on the say-so of uninformed animal lovers. Take the time to review the three-year study by University of Calgary's veterinary medicine program concluded that bucking horses had minimal adverse reaction to rodeo participation.

Comments for Public Posting: Re: public comments on LAAS March 15, 2024: I'm a resident, citizen and animal rescuer in this city for 48 years. Back then the city shelter system was a horror. And it still is. Why cant our beautiful City of la have a humane enough animal shelter and services program? It seems more like a concentration camp than a shelter. Other American cities are figuring it out w policies and programs that work. So are nonprofits who fix for free. But this city government never can. Why not? You keep trying to solve the problem at the horrific and hopeless end of the cycle, on the shelter killing floor. You have unenforced and ineffective spay neuter laws. You ignore backyard breeders. People dont stetilize their pets because it can cost $500-700. I ask that you find the will, the vision and the money to invest in no cost spay neuter services across the 6 shelter system on a permanent basis. Solve the problem at the root. Free city sponsored spay neuter. Smarter better cheaper.

Comments for Public Posting: Do not try to ban rodeo and attack agriculture. This agenda is ridiculous because the western world loves animals and livestock because they are the lifeblood of our culture. We take care of and respect all animals and the way of life...much more than the people trying to ban rodeo. Some of these animals are like family to us. Know this we will all stand and fight with everything we have you can bet on that. God Bless

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeo... Family's having a good time , animals taken better care of than the homeless on your streets.Rodeo... California has profited off of many western movies that were telling how the west was the origin of rodeo and western lifestyles. So California stop making western movies and keep making movies about thugs and criminals so the youth can see that and think that's the way to live. I never seen anybody looting riding a horse and wearing a cowboy hat. LA wake up before it's to late for the state of California
