Comments for Public Posting: Southern California was settled by ranchers. The rodeo came from the skills the cowboys had to perfect - and the rodeo was born from their practice and their performances. We are keeping that alive and educating the children of today as to our history. Many have never seen farm animals IN PERSON! As for the animals, I can attest to the loving care they receive. One of the funniest performances I ever saw was a bull that found himself riderless. He was totally befuddled - looked around - saw the audience and realized he should be putting on a show. He started on the far side of the arena, hugged the rail, bucked and jumped and twirled and spun and finally ended up smack dab in front of the audience. He stopped, gave a perfect 4-square stance, wagged his tail - and proceeded to calmly and regally strut through the center of the arena to the far gate where he KNEW there would be something special for him. I have been in the back, these animals are well-cared for and loved. YES - they are like pets - working animals - but pampered pets nonetheless. I beg you, do NOT take this experience away from these city-raised and urban kids. Let them enjoy a small sliver of the Wild West, a time most of us have only seen on TV and in movies! The kids delight and excitement should be considered. The negative people have NO CLUE!!! AND - I bet they've forgotten what it was like to be a kid!!!

Banning it doesn't some how protect animals, it instead allows one extremist group to continue to push their agenda. Comments for Public Posting: Rodeo should NOT BE BANNED. As a fellow barrel racer who competed in High school rodeo and is now moving onto the amateur pro circuit for my area, rodeo is a passion of mine. The community, whether it be PRO, small associations, etc., is one big family. They are the nicest people you will have ever met, and they all care for the animals with the upmost respect and love. From my time when I was helping another competitor on the PRO circuit, I've never felt more at home than at rodeos. Everyone is very nice, and all the animals were in the best of health and care. DO NOT BAN RODEO

With all of the other major issues that we are facing, you want to ban a much loved and desired sport activity that has long been admired in California? And people wonder why folks are leaving this state in troves. Do your job and stay away from our rodeos.

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeo and our western heritage is where this country started. If you look at the good that these events and competitions put on yearly and how the money is spent back into the community you would relize this is needed. The amount of money given back to education, youth, the community is more then most of your fourtune 1000 companies give back. These events need to stay and I hope you would continue to support these events in the US.

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeos have been around for many many years and people, children love going to the rodeo. The rodeo animals are treated very well, much better than what a lot of people threat their dogs, cats, etc. by not fixing them, being backyard breeders, letting animals run loose, fighting dogs, fighting Roosters, getting an animal and dumping them when want too and also rodeo animals are treated a lot better than some kids. You all know that happens especially in LA. The Hispanic community really love and enjoy rodeos but all communities love and enjoy rodeos. KEEP THE RODEOS LET ALL PEOPLE CONTINUE TO ENJOY RODEOS

Comments for Public Posting: Livestock used for rodeo are pampered and have a better diet and health care than humans do.. We love our animals and treat them as though they are family. Rough stock animals have NOTHING tied around their man hood. We have veterinarians on site at each rodeo as well. Participants pay heavy fines if an animal is harmed. I have been a part of the sport of rodeo for many years and know that it's humane. Thank you.

Comments for Public Posting: I have been a fan of Rodeo for many decades. As a long time rural horse owner, worked my way through college as a farrier, and even attempting bull riding and bareback riding when I was in my late teens and early twenties. For decades I have seen the pathological hatred of rodeo from urban/suburban dwellers and sadly even by English riders who base their hostility on what they imagine and not actual reality. Rodeo is a uniquely rural American sport where Bucking Horses and Bulls live a long and mostly pampered existence even compared to the majority of Thoroughbred & Standardbred Racehorses. I am against any ordinance attacking Rodeo.

Comments for Public Posting: Rodeo livestock are well taken care of. They are bred to buck and love what they do. Some of these athletes only work a couple times a month at 8 seconds per outing at the most. At these early 2024 rodeos some of the bucking stock had not bucked for 6 months. Stock contractors take care of these animals and consider them part of their families. Rules are in place for equipment and handling of the stock that protect the animals and the integrity of rodeo. Those who think it is cruel don't have any idea what rodeo really is and they don't want to take the time to find out. If only some people would treat their kids this well.
