Comments for Public Posting: If we're gonna trap, chase and beat down baby animals can we at least do the same to adult humans!! Either embrace the gross evil of this crap or ban it! Don't be a bunch of hypocrites.

Comments for Public Posting: I am asking you to stop pushing animal welfare to the back of the line, move the rodeo ordinance forward, and place the revised language on the agenda for a full City Council vote. Time is running out, as this motion expires in July, and continued delay is no longer acceptable. Animal cruelty should never be defended as entertainment. Rodeos subject animals to fear, stress, pain, and injury for profit and spectacle. Behind the scenes, many animals endure harsh handling, repeated trauma, and intimidation to force compliance and performance. Devices such as electric prods, flank straps, and spurs are used to provoke responses rooted in fear and distress. Los Angeles has an opportunity to lead with compassion rather than continue stalling while this ordinance remains in committee. A city that claims to value animal welfare cannot delay meaningful action while animals continue to suffer. I respectfully urge you to place the revised ordinance language on the committee agenda immediately so it can proceed to a full Council vote before the motion expires in July.

Comments for Public Posting: I support the ban on rodeos in Los Angeles city and county. It's crucial to stop and prevent cruel treatment towards animals, especially with inhumane tools of torment. Los Angeles has the opportunity to be future forward and lead the way for the rest of the world.

Comments for Public Posting: Any form of abuse for entertainment has no place in modern society. Rodeos are barbaric and use various cruel implements to painfully provoke animals into charging and bucking. Events such as these need to be banned with no exception. Please ensure that rodeos are permanently outlawed so we can end this cruel chapter and become a city that reflects the modern values and perspectives of its constituents.
