Comments for Public Posting: Yall try this every year. You're hurting your own citizens and cowboys. Californians used to be cattle ranchers and farmers. Heck raising kids in rodeo teaches many of them to be upstanding adults when they're older. Rodeo is not animal abuse and I know for a fact flying u advocates every year in your state for this reason. Rodeo gives all of these animals a chance at life and they have the ability to do great things. They are the superstars just as much as the cowboys
