Comments for Public Posting: The banning of these historically deep rooted rodeo events is not only irresponsible but damaging. Irresponsible in the sense that legislators are not doing their due diligence in researching what rodeo brings to our community's culture and how much respect these athletes have for their animals. Damaging to families that rely on the income and support that rodeo brings. California's Latino community already feels diminished as it is, now we have our traditional sport of rodeo being threatened. LA county of all places should know Vaqueros will not go down without a fight.

Comments for Public Posting: The rodeo industry boasts that the animals do not suffer. Sean Gleason, PBR's CEO, reports that "Bull injuries or fatalities are rare relative to the number of times they perform." In fact, it is impossible for the public to know these numbers, because rodeos and bull riding events are notorious for not disclosing animal injuries and deaths. Animals especially young calves/bulls are frequently gravely injured at rodeo events. It is appalling that we still allow barbaric disgusting events disguised as "entertainment" using helpless animals to persist. Please ensure that the rodeo BAN is in effect permanently! Drs. Comments for Public Posting: Bull riding, and all rodeo events, are barbaric and cruel! If ignorant people did not attend these cruel events, there would be no bull riding/rodeo events, and animals would not be subjected to this cruelty!!! It is high time that these events are a thing of the past!

Comments for Public Posting: Bull riding events are cruel to the animals involved and should not be used to provide entertainment to people who either don't know better or who enjoy seeing animals mistreated. The bulls have no idea what's going on and are very frightened. It's not any kind of contest because humans win. Every single time. Because they control the board. This kind of thing has no place in a civilized society.
