Comments for Public Posting: Public Comment: Ban Rodeos in Los Angeles—Now How is this still happening? Rodeos are a grotesque display of cruelty masquerading as entertainment. Animals are violently chased, roped, and brutalized for the amusement of spectators. Horses, bulls, steers, and calves suffer broken bones, punctured lungs, torn muscles, and snapped necks—all in the name of “tradition.” It’s barbaric. It’s shameful. And it has no place in a city that claims to value compassion and progress. Let’s be clear: this isn’t culture. It’s torture. Other nations have already done the right thing—England, Scotland, Wales, Germany, the Netherlands. Mexico City banned bullfighting after 500 years of bloodshed. Meanwhile, Los Angeles is still allowing animals to be tormented in arenas while children cheer. What message are we sending? Polling shows the people of Los Angeles overwhelmingly oppose this cruelty. So why are we still debating? The science is clear. The ethics are clear. The public is clear. Ban rodeos. Not next year. Not after another round of injuries. Now.

Comments for Public Posting: Stop this cruel event. Bulls and all animals are sentient beings who feel pain, fear, have emotions, deserve to be treated with respect and kindness. There are plenty of other ways to get entertainment.! Please see this link for more detailed information on the serious injuries caused to the animals, and the terror they endure! It is absolutely sickening and brutal

Comments for Public Posting: Animal torture should never be allowed. These animals have no say in how they are treated. There is nothing in bull fighting that is for the animals. Animals being used just for human entertainment is not humane.

Comments for Public Posting: Thank you for proposing a ban on rodeos. There is no excuse for animal abuse. These animals are being used for human's amusement and they are hurt in the process. This must be stopped. Thank you.

Comments for Public Posting: There is no excuse for abuse!! I support the LA RODEO BAN. This is 2025, not 1825. Why are rodeos still allowed anyway?? I thought the US was more civilized than this.
