Comments for Public Posting: It's time for a change with the times. No more barbaric , inhumane treatment of animals for so-called "human" entertainment. It's a sad state of affairs that we humans treat other living beings and our environment in a crude, inhumane way. Time to stop rodeos.

Comments for Public Posting: Culture does not justify cruelty. Cockfighting, bullfighting, foot-binding, and genital mutilation are all activities that proponents tried to justify based on 'culture.' But culture does not justify cruelty. Please ban rodeos in Los Angeles.

Comments for Public Posting: "The last refuge of a scoundrel" is any strong emotional appeal often used by manipulative or unethical individuals as a final, desperate excuse or shield to hide their true selfish motives and to justify their immoral actions when all other reasoning or justifications have failed. That's exactly what the rodeo industry is doing by citing 'culture' and 'race' to justify continuing the activity in Los Angeles. They realize they have no moral justification for the cruelty they inflict on animals and so they make it about something else instead. This ordinance is about ending animal cruelty, and nothing else. In order to end this cruelty, please pass the LA Rodeo Ban.

Comments for Public Posting: Roping animals, wrestling animals to the ground, and making them buck... all for what? The sake of entertainment? Throw a concert or a sporting event with consenting humans. Ban rodeos in Los Angeles. We don't need this cruelty.
