Comments for Public Posting: California's history is a combination of the immigrants who came to settle. Rodeo is a live story of that history. People of all races worked and cowboyed on the land that you have now paved. Let at least the story be told through hardwork, team support, regional pride. This is a sport that both men and women strive to be great. The animals used are athletes and taken extremely good care of. Give a reason to be proud and not another reason why so many are moving out.
