Comments for Public Posting: We continue to be outraged over the abhorrent cruelty to animals in rodeos!! The sick nature of these activities cause stress, suffering, and injuries where some animals have to be euthanized! Do you truly believe this satisfies the meaning of “entertainment”? People who participate and those in the audience have definite mental issues! To enjoy animal suffering leaves many questions about their behavior and mental health! The poor excuse of “tradition” carries no real weight when looking to justify cruelty! We hope and pray that rodeos will be seen everywhere for what they really are! Animals shocked to force their aggression is not humane or ever acceptable! Please research the many humane forms of non-animal entertainment that will draw in more customers and will be enjoyed by the Public! With our sincere appreciation for your serious consideration for the public and for animal welfare! Dave and Rita Cross
