Comments for Public Posting: We have almost reached the year 2025!! 25 yrs. AFTER the millennium, as human beings we have learned so much about humanity. WHY is it then that cruel hardships are still inflicted on animals. I speak of rodeos, bull riding, calf roping etc. These helpless animals are FORCED into the arena where their dignity is stripped from them by superior minded arrogant human beings. It is time that rodeos are outlawed. The brutality of rodeos is appalling. Lets help the animals by banning rodeos.

Comments for Public Posting: We have a stewardship accountability for all animals. They have the right to live in their God-intended habitat free from fear of human abuse. Bulls used in bull riding are abused. You have the power to help them. Please ban bull riding. The animals can't speak for themselves. Can they rely on you to be their defense?

Comments for Public Posting: Bull riding events are extremely cruel and violent towards animals. This so-called “sport” is no more than terrified animals trying to escape from something that is causing them fear, stress and pain. There is no excuse for animal abuse. I fully support the L.A. Rodeo ban.

Comments for Public Posting: We do not want to see bull rodeo events that foster animals being inhumanly treated. This is not positive family friendly fun and should not be sponsored by the state in any way. These types of events only serve to propagate that animals are for our entertainment in the eyes of young children. What we see with the bull riding, calf roping, and horse barrel races are only half of the story. These animals are mistreated and handled harshly on the road from town to town and are many times drugged, malnourished and always kept in cages....no way to live. Please do not promote these types of events. Animals should be treated with compassion and not used and tormented for profit.

Comments for Public Posting: There is no excuse for causing fear, pain, or any other kind of mental or physical distress to an animal. Any “sport” that causes an animal to flee from is not a sport, it is cruelty, sadism, and barbarism. Any person who participates in this activity has no regard for other living beings and no imagination for more altruistic sports.
