Comments for Public Posting: I am writing to express support for hazard pay for frontline grocery store workers. They have put their lives on the line daily to provide access food for our community. They live in fear for their lives and the lives of their families. They should be fairly compensated for the risk they are taking for the needs of their community.

Comments for Public Posting: My name is Nabila Sosa, advocacy manager at NCJW| LA. In our commitment to advancing economic justice and equity, we are proud members of the Fair Workweek LA coalition composed of over 30 community groups from across LA County, including health advocates, clergy, worker rights groups, Democratic clubs, and grocery and retail workers. Grocery workers are the unsung heroes of this pandemic and have been risking their lives and been on the frontlines, providing a lifeline for our communities and keeping us fed. Many grocery workers are brown and black folks, who continue to be disproportionately affected by the combined weight of COVID-19 and widespread unemployment.
