Summary: The Greater Valley Glen Council opposes efforts to standardize the bylaws of the City's neighborhood councils or otherwise impinge on the autonomy of the neighborhood councils to conduct their business as they see fit, consistent within existing mandated constraints. The borders of each neighborhood council enclose a unique set of circumstances, both demographic and physical, that need to be recognized and which have been a determining factors in creating each council's bylaws. As such we oppose the effort put forward in CF 21-0407 to study how neighborhood council elections can be standardized. At the same time we view as informative a disinterested inquiry by the Department of Neighborhood Empowerment to determine how Neighborhood Council bylaws affect council elections.
