Comments for Public Posting: Hello, I urge you with everything I have to make this incredible establishment a protected and conserved entity. This is one of the most important places in Los Angeles when it comes to queer history; I myself they are found solace many many times on the dance floor with a handful of other people line dancing, a huge group of people salsa dancing, or upstairs singing Barbra Streisand or Taylor Swift and the karaoke bar. This is a place where no one was judged and everyone was allowed to be exactly who they are, when there were no other places that offered that kind of refuge. I even moved all the way across the city to just up the street so I can go there all the time, it was my neighborhood hunt. Please, I urge you to do everything you can to preserve this establishment. It is the most meaningful part of my social history when it comes to my queerness; I know thousands of other people feel this way. Please. Do your part and protect us and the community by protecting this building.
