Comments for Public Posting: I'm writing as a longtime resident and home owner in full support of the Crenshaw Crossing project. I think the creation of jobs and new business ventures will be good for the neighborhood and our community. I hope that all other community members have learned enough about the project to see the merits of it as well. Thank you!

Comments for Public Posting: I am a homeowner in the Crenshaw Manor area of Los Angeles (west of Crenshaw/south of Exposition/north of MLK/east of Chesapeake) and strongly support the Crenshaw Crossing Project because of the value it brings to the community for more much-needed affordable housing. I love the work that Jennifer McElyea is doing and the fact that she keeps the community informed on the progress of this project. We look forward to the build-out.
