Hello,

As a follow up to my phone call to the Mayor's office this AM -

I really appreciate everything you (Karen and team) are doing to clean up the homeless situation in LA. Great interview, Karen on CNN! It is so sad to see people dying every day on our streets but wonderful to know someone is actually DOING something for once!

Based upon the success the residents of Venice have seen so far, we would really appreciate the next focus being in Studio City/North Hollywood. Sherman Oaks and Woodland Hills are also in need of help. So, that being said the SFV needs a ton of help! Families, schools, kids, it is very bad.

Thank you,

Lisa
