

Communication from Public

Name: Susan Johnson

Date Submitted: 05/26/2023 11:17 AM

Council File No: 21-1208-S3

Comments for Public Posting: We need to reduce methane emissions from food waste by encouraging more Californians to place food waste in the green yard waste recycling bins for composting. I compost my produce trimmings at home already, so it would be great to have the opportunity to compost leftover products from meat and poultry as well through this program. Please keep the food recycling program in place and encourage citizens to reduce methane emissions by utilizing this program.