Dear Jessie Barkley:

[ENV-EIR]

The proposed, "1111 South Hill Street Project," is located at 1101-1115 South Hill Street and 206-210 West 11th Street Los Angeles, CA 90015. These locations are in Reporting District 0182. This "RD" falls within the geographical boundaries of the Los Angeles Police Department's Central Division. A project of this size could have a minor impact on police services within Central Division's Community area. The Department is available to advise you on crime prevention features appropriate for the design of the property in this project. The Department strongly recommends that the developers contact Community Outreach and Development Division's Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design Officer (CPTED) James Nichols at e-mail address: CPTED@lapd.online.

Upon completion of the project, you are encouraged to provide the Commanding Officer of Central Community Police Station with a diagram copy of each portion of the property. Central Community Police Station's Commanding Officer is Captain III Timothy Harrelson. Central Division is located at 251 East 6th St. Los Angeles CA., 90013 (RD 0155). Captain Harrelson's phone number is (213) 833-3707. The diagram should include access routes and any additional information that might facilitate police response.

Should you have any further questions, please contact Officer James Nichols at the LAPD Community Outreach and Development Division, (213) 486-6000.

Respectfully,

MICHEL R. MOORE
Chief of Police

AARON C. PONCE, Captain

Divisional Support and Communication:

There are many specialized support units, divisions and services available to Central Division within the LAPD (i.e., Air Support, Detectives, K9 and Metro) to support any additional policing needs. These services are available to supplement and complement the division's policing services. In using these available resources, the Los Angeles Police Department can meet the demands for police services for the 1111 South Hill Street Project.

Central Community Police Station's emergency response system is directly linked to the Los Angeles Police Department's Communication Dispatch Center. Communication Division has the responsibility to staff and answer telephone calls for service on a 24- hour basis. This includes 911 emergency calls (police, fire and medical). Communication Division's main protocol is to manage and dispatch police calls for service in the City of Los Angeles.

No, the information is still the same. Thank you for reaching out.

Hi Robin

Hope all is well with you! I wanted to follow upon on the LAPL request for information for a mixed-use project located at 1111 S. Hill Street (downtown Los Angeles) which you responded to back in October last year. Since that time, the 1111 S. Hill Project has been redesigned slightly. The overall residential number and hotel numbers are the same. The amount of commercial uses has increased by a small amount. The hotel units would now be designated as Transient Occupancy Residential Structure (TORS) units. The project build out year increased from 2024 to 2026.

I wanted to ask if you would like to revise or update any responses provided in the original letter or send an updated response? I am not sure of capacities/service populations have changed?

I know it's been some time, so for your reference I have attached your original letter, the original project description, and updated project description.

Thank you! Please let me know if you have any questions.

There are no current plans to build new libraries that would serve this project area.

On February 8, 2007, The Board of Library Commissioners approved a new Branch Facilities Plan. This Plan includes criteria for new Libraries, which recommends new size standards for the provision of LAPL facilities — 12,500 Square feet for community with less than 45,000 population and 14,500 square feet for community with more than 45,000 population and up to 20,000 square feet for a Regional branch. It also recommends that when a community reaches a population of 90,000, an additional branch library should be considered for the area.

The Los Angeles Public Library recommends a mitigation fee of $200 per capita based upon the projected population of the development. The funds will be used for library materials, technology, programs and/or facilities improvement. It is recommended that mitigation fees be paid for by the developer

Re: 1111 South Hill Project

Dear Ms. Jessie Barkey,

In response to your request for information, please find an Updated LAUSD Schools Enrollments and Capacities Report for the schools and programs serving the 1111 SOUTH HILL STREET PROJECT, 1101-1115 South Hill Street and 206-210 West 11th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90015. The project is planned to construct 319 multi-family residential units, (24 studio units, 144 one-bedroom units, 127 two-bedroom units, 20 three-bedroom units, and 4 three-bedroom penthouse units), including hotel/retail/commercial use. At this time reporting is based on individual project address, without reporting on the combined impacts of other project addresses served by the same schools. This report contains the most recent data available on operating capacities and enrollments, and is designed to address any questions pertaining to overcrowding and factors related to school capacity. All schools operate on single track calendar.

Please note that no new school construction is planned and the data in this report already take into account: portable classrooms on site, additions being built onto existing schools, student permits and transfers, programs serving choice areas, and any other operational activities or educational programming affecting the operating capacities and enrollments among LAUSD schools.

Additional information on LAUSD's Capital Improvement programs can be found on the Facilities Services Division main webpage at <http://www.laschools.org/new-site/>. Listings of residential schools and other programs serving the project can be found using LAUSD's Residential School Finder at <http://rsi.lausd.net/ResidentSchoolIdentifier/>.

The Developer Fee Justification Study with student generation rates can be found online at <https://achieve.lausd.net/domain/921>.

2. What is the area's existing parkland acres-to-population ratio and what is the desired acres-to-population ratio?

The City of Los Angeles overall has a ratio of 0.84 acres of neighborhood or community parkland per 1,000 residents. The Central City Community Plan, within which the project is located, has a parkland acres-to-population ratio for neighborhood parks of 0.10 acres per 1,000 residents. This also pertains to community parks however; ideally community parks should have 20 acres which include facilities and programs offered at a larger radius. The City's General Plan, sets a goal of a parkland acres-to-population ratio of 10 acres of parkland per 1,000 residents.

3. What is the current capacity and level of use of the parks and recreational facilities near the project site?

While data regarding the level of use for the recreational facilities that serve the project site is not available, parks within the surrounding community are heavily utilized and often overburdened.

4. Are there any planned or ongoing construction or expansion projects for the above-identified parks? If yes, please describe.

There is a planned project to construct a new gymnasium at the Boyle Heights Sports Center. This project has not started construction.

There is the planned project to construct a new park at 1st and Broadway. The project has not yet started construction. The new park will include a two-story restaurant building with rooftop access at the northwest corner of the park, trees and green spaces for public enjoyment, walking pathways and passive recreational uses, numerous seating areas, new hardscaping and landscaped areas, bicycle parking area, 16 multi-function canopies to provide shade and lighting throughout the park.

5. Would the project create a need to construct a new facility (or expand an existing facility) in order to maintain acceptable parkland standard or other performance standards? If yes, please describe the required facility improvement(s).

Each project is required to mitigate the impacts of the development through either the dedication of land, the payment of in-lieu fees, or a combination thereof. Most projects that contain more than fifty residential dwelling units are required to meet with the Department of Recreation and Parks prior to filing in order to discuss the dedication requirement. The environmental analysis for the project should consider the possibility of a land dedication.

6. Please identify any other issues that you think should be included in the MND related to the parks.

On February 27, 2018, RAP met with the project's representatives in the required early consultation meeting per LAMC 12.33 C.1. In this early consultation meeting, the project applicants were advised that the City may require a dedication of land, or pay a fee in-lieu, or provide a combination of land dedication and in-lieu fee payment for the purpose of acquiring, expanding and improving park and recreational facilities for new residents.

The addition of new residents into any area without a corresponding increase in parkland will reduce the existing ratio of parks to residents. Each project is required to mitigate the impacts of the development through the dedication of land, the payment of in-lieu fees, or a combination thereof. The payment of fees may reduce the Projects impacts on the City's parks and recreational facilities. However, if fees paid are insufficient for the provision of land up to the City's standard then the payment of fees alone may not be sufficient to reduce the impact of the Project on parks and recreation facilities to a less than significant level.

We encourage the applicant to provide a robust mix of on-site open space and amenities to meet the needs of their residents. Alternatively, the Project can explore options to link with nearby recreation and park facilities and consider mutually beneficial partnerships between park programs, operations, and improvements.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide information relative to the proposed project's impact on recreation and park services. If you have any questions or comments regarding this information please contact the RAP Park Staff at (213) 202-2682 or rap.parkfees@lacity.org.

2. What is the area's existing parkland acres-to-population ratio and what is the desired acres-to-population ratio?

The City of Los Angeles overall has a ratio of 0.84 acres of neighborhood or community parkland per 1,000 residents. The Central City Community Plan, within which the project is located, has a parkland acres-to-population ratio for neighborhood parks of 0.10 acres per 1,000 residents. This also pertains to community parks however; ideally community parks should have 20 acres which include facilities and programs offered at a larger radius. The City's General Plan, sets a goal of a parkland acres-to-population ratio of 10 acres of parkland per 1,000 residents.

3. What is the current capacity and level of use of the parks and recreational facilities near the project site?

While data regarding the level of use for the recreational facilities that serve the project site is not available, parks within the surrounding community are heavily utilized and often overburdened.

4. Are there any planned or ongoing construction or expansion projects for the above-identified parks? If yes, please describe.

There is an expansion project at El Sereno Arroyo Playground and Community Garden, which includes construction of a new playground with lighting, walking path, fitness area, public art, restroom and landscaping, fencing and lighting throughout the park. This project has not started construction.

There is a planned project to construct a new gymnasium at the Boyle Heights Sports Center. This project has not started construction.

There is the planned project to construct a new park at 1st and Broadway. The project has not yet started construction. The new park will include a two-story restaurant building with rooftop access at the northwest corner of the park, trees and green spaces for public enjoyment, walking pathways and passive recreational uses, numerous seating areas, new hardscaping and landscaped areas, bicycle parking area, 16 multi-function canopies to provide shade and lighting throughout the park.

Ord and Yale Street Park is a new park that is currently under construction. The park amenities will include benches, trees, park lighting, a raised platform, a shade structure, ramps, stairs, walkways, viewing terraces, a restroom facility, drinking fountains, fitness equipment, play structures, cultural artwork, and related irrigation and landscaping.

5. Would the project create a need to construct a new facility (or expand an existing facility) in order to maintain acceptable parkland standard or other performance standards? If yes, please describe the required facility improvement(s).

Each project is required to mitigate the impacts of the development through either the dedication of land, the payment of in-lieu fees, or a combination thereof. Most projects that contain more than fifty residential dwelling units are required to meet with the Department of Recreation and Parks prior to filing in order to discuss the dedication requirement. The environmental analysis for the project should consider the possibility of a land dedication.

6. Please identify any other issues that you think should be included in the MND related to the parks.

On February 27, 2018, RAP met with the project's representatives in the required early consultation meeting per LAMC 12.33 C.1. In this early consultation meeting, the project applicants were advised that the City may require a dedication of land, or pay a fee in-lieu, or provide a combination of land dedication and in-lieu fee payment for the purpose of acquiring, expanding and improving park and recreational facilities for new residents.

The addition of new residents into any area without a corresponding increase in parkland will reduce the existing ratio of parks to residents. Each project is required to mitigate the impacts of the development through the dedication of land, the payment of in-lieu fees, or a combination thereof. The payment of fees may reduce the Project's impacts on the City's parks and recreational facilities. However, if fees paid are insufficient for the provision of land up to the City's standard then the payment of fees alone may not be sufficient to reduce the impact of the Project on parks and recreation facilities to a less than significant level.

We encourage the applicant to provide a robust mix of on-site open space and amenities to meet the needs of their residents. Alternatively, the Project can explore options to link with nearby recreation and park facilities and consider mutually beneficial partnerships between park programs, operations, and improvements.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide information relative to the proposed project's impact on recreation and park services. If you have any questions or comments regarding this information please contact the RAP Park Staff at (213) 202-2682 or rap.parkfees@lacity.org.

Sincerely,
