1. Removal of Sign NFF 7 [Venice/Expo] and removal of the signs requested by other offices;
2. Requiring vertical louvers on all of the TCN signs recommended in Planning's November 1, 2023 letter, which includes FF 26 [Expo/405 Eastside] and FF 28 [Expo/Canfield];
3. ~~Limit hours of operation for the program to be from 7am to 10pm; and~~
4. ~~Increase the spacing requirement from the centerline of scenic highways to 500 feet; and~~
5. Regarding removal of existing signs, for Freeway Facing Signs require an initial removal of fifty (50) static Off-Site Sign Faces before the issuance of any approval for a Freeway Facing Sign then, remove a minimum of four existing offsite signs within the City boundary for each new TCN structure, prioritize these spatially in the same way as they are prioritized for Non Freeway Facing signs.
