Comments for Public Posting: Council and Committee members, Re: Item 8 LAPD Permit
Please take into consideration the thousands of short-term hosts who are struggling to deal with the cost and complexity of more and more taxes, fees and regulations. At the very least, establish an orderly, understandable, fair process, and provide potential alternatives to additional costly requirements. Please take the time, until 2025, to review the proposal and come up with a plan that will not be an additional burden to thousands of Los Angeles residents. Thank you.

Comments for Public Posting: As a 35 year teacher, if one student breaks a rule, they get the consequences, but not the entire class. Some may argue that if I punish one, I should do so with the whole class who did not violate any rules. A similar lack of logic prevails in imposing a police permit for those Air B & B hosts who violate rules and convert spaces into illegal hotels. THOSE individuals should be punished, not ALL hosts. I've been hosting for almost 10 years. As a single mother & school teacher, the additional income has been critical to paying bills & caring for my child. I've adhered to every law, never had a single complaint. I vigorously oppose this new "police permit" as heavy-handed & entirely unnecessary. Please do not allow such draconian tactics to go forward. Thank you for your consideration, Nika Cavat

Comments for Public Posting: I do not agree with this new proposed ruling. It is unfair and there are way too many stipulations as it is. Please do not make it more difficult for the average person to earn extra income.

Comments for Public Posting: I heartily agree that more time should be given to amend the effective date for residents to acquire a police permit to continue home sharing from July 1, 2024 to January 1, 2025. It is difficult enough as is to coordinate between the various departments regarding home sharing in Los Angeles, and to add another layer will make it even more so. Why we should be registered with the police is in itself dumbfounding. It makes one think we are considered somehow dubious in nature and intent. Surely there must be more consideration given to this serious topic. Please, as a short term host of many years here in Los Angeles, I have done nothing but bring people from all over the world to this fabulous city, and love what I do.

Comments for Public Posting: Please give us more time to streamline the process of police permits for our Airbnb rentals. I do believe the police have more than enough on their plate and don't need the added burden of looking on this matter.

Comments for Public Posting: I support amending the effective date to give the City and LAPD more time to establish the process and report back on potential alternatives to the requirement. The current home sharing regulations and implementation of the new requirement should be streamlined and easy to follow.
