Honorable Councilmembers,

I am writing in support of the Hotel Worker Protection Ordinance and I urge you to adopt the policy now.

Every time working people try to protect their rights, the big corporations and their lobbyists say misleading things to try to scare us. Remember when they told us the minimum wage hurt the hotel industry? Now they are at it again. Lobbyists are telling Councilmembers that we can't do this law because of the drought.

But this law PROTECTS the environment. Read Section 182.03 D of the initiative:

"This subsection does not prevent a hotel from continuing, modifying or establishing a sustainable environmental program, such as a 'green program,' under which guests are encouraged to re-use linens, bath towels or similar items, nor does it require a hotel to have any guest room cleaned when the occupant has opted-out of such service without solicitation by the hotel or when the occupant informs the hotel that they do not wish to be disturbed."

Housekeepers and their allies collected 110,000 signatures from Los Angeles residents in support of this law. Overwhelmingly, Los Angeles voters stand with housekeepers. We are asking that you choose to do so as well.

Please, listen to housekeepers and voters and adopt this law now.

Honorable Councilmembers,

I am writing to urge you to adopt the Hotel Worker Protection Ordinance.

Housekeepers are the only classification in the hospitality industry that get paid like garment workers: paid based on the amount of work they do. When the minimum wage goes up, some hotels then raise the room quotas on the housekeepers, so they don't really make more money per room. This law makes sure they are fairly compensated when they clean more rooms. The Los Angeles City Council should implement this law now.

Adopting this policy will empower us all to ensure the City of Los Angeles comes back from the pandemic stronger than ever.

This law was passed in Long Beach, Santa Monica, West Hollywood, and most recently, in Glendale this past Tuesday. This law has been tested and it works. The Los Angeles City Council should provide the same rights to its housekeepers that these other cities do

Please implement this law now.

Clerk Council and Public Services,

I am writing to urge you to adopt the Hotel Worker Protection Ordinance.

Hospitality workers were some of the hardest hit by COVID-19, but they also face unique challenges that existed before the pandemic. Hotel room attendants who work alone in guest rooms, where there are no witnesses or cameras, face unique risks of threatening behavior, including sexual assault and other crimes. Many instances of sexual assault go unreported to the police. They need the tools to protect themselves.

Room attendants are also frequently assigned excessive room cleaning quotas and unexpected mandatory overtime, which undermines their ability to adequately protect public health, interferes with their ability to meet family obligations, and can undermine other employment protections benefitting these employees. Overtime should be voluntary and room attendants made to clean excessive square footage—more than 3,500 square feet during a single shift—should be compensated for their heavy workloads.

Adopting this policy would give them the tools to protect themselves from sexual assault and ensure fair pay for heavy workloads. It will empower us all to ensure the City of Los Angeles comes back from the pandemic stronger than ever.

Please adopt this ordinance without further delay.

Clerk Council and Public Services,

Las recamareras y sus aliados colectaron 110,000 firmas de residentes de Los Angeles en apoyo a esta ley. De modo arrollador, votantes de Los Angeles apoyan a las recamareras. Le pedimos que usted lo haga también.

Los trabajadores de hospitalidad fueron unos de los más golpeados duro por el COVID-19, pero también enfrentan desafíos únicos que existían antes de la pandemia. Las recamareras de hotel que trabajan solas en las habitaciones de huéspedes, donde no hay testigos ni cámaras, enfrentan riesgos únicos de conducta amenazante, incluida la agresión sexual y otros delitos. Muchos casos de agresión sexual no se reportan a la policía. Necesitan herramientas para protegerse.

Yo estoy escribiendo esta carta para urgir que adopte la Ordenanza de Protección de Trabajadores Hoteleros.

Esta ley se aprobó en Long Beach, Santa Mónica, West Hollywood y, más recientemente, en Glendale el martes pasado. Esta ley ha sido probada y funciona. El concilio de Los Angeles debería otorgar los mismos derechos a sus recamareras que estas otras ciudades.

Por favor adopte esta ordenanza sin demora.

Clerk Council and Public Services,

Le estoy escribiendo para urgir que implementar la Ordenanza de Protección de Trabajadores Hoteleros.

Las recamareras son la única clasificación en la industria de hospitalidad quienes son pagadas como trabajadores de prendas: pagadas basadas a la cantidad de trabajo que hagan. Cuando el salario mínimo sube algunos hoteles entonces suben la cuota de cuartos a las recamareras, entonces en verdad no ganan más dinero por cada cuarto. Esta ley asegura que serán compensadas justamente cuando limpien más cuartos. La ciudad de Los Angeles debería implementar esta ley ahora mismo.

Adoptando esta póliza las empoderada para garantizar que la Ciudad de Los Ángeles regrese de la pandemia más fuerte que nunca.
