Honorable Councilmembers,

I am writing to urge you to adopt the Hotel Worker Protection Ordinance.

Housekeepers are the only classification in the hospitality industry that get paid like garment workers: paid based on the amount of work they do. When the minimum wage goes up, some hotels then raise the room quotas on the housekeepers, so they don't really make more money per room. This law makes sure they are fairly compensated when they clean more rooms. The Los Angeles City Council should implement this law now.

Adopting this policy will empower us all to ensure the City of Los Angeles comes back from the pandemic stronger than ever.

This law was passed in Long Beach, Santa Monica, West Hollywood, and most recently, in Glendale this past Tuesday. This law has been tested and it works. The Los Angeles City Council should provide the same rights to its housekeepers that these other cities do

Please implement this law now.

Honorable Councilmembers,

I am writing to urge you to adopt the Hotel Worker Protection Ordinance.

Housekeepers and their allies collected 110,000 signatures from Los Angeles residents in support of this law. Overwhelmingly, Los Angeles voters stand with housekeepers. We are asking that you choose to do so as well.

Hospitality workers were some of the hardest hit by COVID-19, but they also face unique challenges that existed before the pandemic. Hotel room attendants who work alone in guest rooms, where there are no witnesses or cameras, face unique risks of threatening behavior, including sexual assault and other crimes. Many instances of sexual assault go unreported to the police. They need the tools to protect themselves.

This law was passed in Long Beach, Santa Monica, West Hollywood, and most recently, in Glendale this past Tuesday. This law has been tested and it works. The Los Angeles City Council should provide the same rights to its housekeepers that these other cities do.

Please adopt this ordinance without further delay.

Clerk Council and Public Services,

Le estoy escribiendo para urgir que implementar la Ordenanza de Protección de Trabajadores Hoteleros.

Las recamareras son la única clasificación en la industria de hospitalidad quienes son pagadas como trabajadores de prendas: pagadas basadas a la cantidad de trabajo que hagan. Cuando el salario mínimo sube algunos hoteles entonces suben la cuota de cuartos a las recamareras, entonces en verdad no ganan más dinero por cada cuarto. Esta ley asegura que serán compensadas justamente cuando limpien más cuartos. La ciudad de Los Angeles debería implementar esta ley ahora mismo.

Adoptando esta póliza las empoderada para garantizar que la Ciudad de Los Ángeles regrese de la pandemia más fuerte que nunca.

Esta ley se aprobó en Long Beach, Santa Mónica, West Hollywood y, más recientemente, en Glendale el martes pasado. Esta ley ha sido probada y funciona. El concilio de Los Ángeles debería otorgar los mismos derechos a sus recamareras que estas otras ciudades.

Por favor implemente esta ley ahora.
