Summary: The Los Feliz Neighborhood Council condemns the racist and homophobic remarks of former councilmember Nury Martinez, councilmember Gil Cedillo, and councilmember Kevin de Leon, and we call on lawmakers to swiftly pass this Motion. Racism and homophobia have no place in our city's most powerful positions. The Los Feliz Neighborhood Council welcomes people of all races, ethnicities and sexual orientations to its community and wants Los Angeles to be a welcoming place for all. The remarks of these public officials are not reflective of the city we want to be. For these reasons we urge the City Council to pass this Motion with urgency.
