Comments for Public Posting: This move by soon to be ex councilman Bonin is unacceptable. First of all, St. Joseph's Center gets a no bid contract. Their track record of solving homelessness is not exactly stellar. Bonin's failed attempts at getting people housed should not be rewarded with another 2 million dollars to squander on more failed ideas. Also, why Westchester and Playa? What is the motivation behind this? Is it because the communities have fought Bonin every step of the way to get our public spaces returned to what their original usage is? Parks are for families, children and community events, Senior Centers safe for Seniors, Libraries with safe access for all? Many of the individuals at the wetlands have been offered assistance but refuse to take it. There is not reason to throw more money at this problem. How about actually enforcing the laws...here is your help take it or move. Bonin, St. Joseph's Center and LAHSA have had ample funds and opportunities to assist the homeless in District 11 and have failed. Moving the RVs into the Westchester/Playa communities is wrong and will be met with huge community outrage.
