Comments for Public Posting: TPS should NOT be extended for those from El Salvador, Nicaragua, and Honduras. The "T" in TPS is for temporary. The program was designed for emergency situations. Those emergencies no longer exist, so the protected status must end for these aliens. Salvadorans received protection in 2001 because of an earthquake--24 years ago! The country has long since recovered from the earthquake, so Salvadorans should return to their country. The same goes for those from Honduras and Nicaragua. The rationale for those programs was Hurricane Mitch in 1999--26 years ago. It is time for TPS holders to go home. To do otherwise is an abuse of our immigration system and of our generosity. TPS was not designed to be permanent, after all. It is illogical to continue it. The City Council instead should support the Trump administration's efforts to terminate these programs. Enough is enough. Stop the promotion of immigration fraud.
