Summary: The Sunland-Tujunga Neighborhood Council takes the position that we do not wish to return to in person meetings at this time. The rules being put forth state that "in person meetings will require proof of vaccination or a negative Covid Test" for our community members to attend. This would be discriminatory and a violation of the Neighborhood Council Code of Conduct. All of our community members should be able to attend our meetings. We support any measures that will allow us to continue using the Zoom platform or something similar to continue our meetings.
