Comments for Public Posting: We, the retirees, have been suffered from the unprecedented high inflation especially fir the high cost for foods. I personally feel like all the grocery costs are doubled now. Many times, I just give up picking up or return to shelf before going to cashier. Due to low inflation during the previous years, we have banked COLA, please let us get banked COLA before we die while we are in financially worst ever situation. Thank you for your serious concerns!
