Comments for Public Posting: It has been very hard to maintain the same quality of life with very high inflation for the last few years. Prices for essential goods have gone up a lot and they are not coming down and they will not! Going to eat out costs have more than doubled. All basic items required to eat and to provide shelter (housing) have gone up. Any reliefs from this bad inflation is greatly appreciated. I like to thank the City Council in advance for consideration and approval of the discretionary COLA. Thanks
