Comments for Public Posting: Why are residents living in one bedroom 500 sq ft apartment charges the same as a four bedroom 1400 sq ft single family home for trash collection? This rate system is completely unfair to those of us that live alone in one bedroom apartments. My rate has doubled yet I still only through one bag of trash out every week. You are trying to fund this city on the backs of rate payers. This needs to be changed and rates should be by the number of people living in the home.
