Comments for Public Posting: The people of Los Angeles cannot afford another price hike. Everything is going up, rent, water; groceries, sales tax, gas... but wages aren't going up! With the amount of displaced Angelenos from the fires and families just trying to get by, its absurd that LA would promote an increase for trash that DOUBLES the current rate and continues to rise over the next few years. Los Angeles has a bad habit of misusing money, its time to look in the mirror and solve your financial problems fron within, because the people cannot continue to hemorrhage money.
