Comments for Public Posting: We can not afford to lose this beautiful historic home of Marilyn Monroe. We lose so many cultural and historic landmarks in Los Angeles to developers. We should keep this as part of the L.A. and Hollywood atmosphere that would draw locals and visitors to see and enjoy. Thank you

Comments for Public Posting: Please do not demolish Marilyn's home! She is a cultural American icon. Destroying her home would entail destroying a part of American History. This decision not only impacts locals, but American citizens from all over including myself in Florida and people world wide. Marilyn never had a home. There is much significance to the home in that she chose to purchase the property and make it a home in your county. Please preserve her home for generations to come and for fans who have never visited or had somewhere tangible to see that truly belonged to her.

Comments for Public Posting: I am writing to express my strong support for designating the Marilyn Monroe Residence in Brentwood as a Historic-Cutrual Monument (HCM) nomination. This 1929 Spanish Hacienda-style home holds significant cultural and historical value, as it was the first home Marilyn Monroe purchased for herself and by herself during her illustrious career in 1962. I urge you and the City of Los Angeles to stand firm against this lawsuit and to proceed with the HCM designation process. Thank you for your attention to this matter and for your continued efforts in historic preservation.

Comments for Public Posting: We are nothing without our history, and the preservation of other important landmarks throughout LA's storied past demonstrates this. Unfortunately, we've seen more iconic buildings lost than saved, and in a city so centered around the arts and entertainment industry, it would be a disservice to our city, as well as an insult to our roots to demolish rather than preserve Marilyn Monroe's former home. Here in LA, our history is Hollywood history.

Comments for Public Posting: Please don't demolish Marilyn Monroe's home. It has significance in pop culture history, being that Marilyn Monroe is one of the most famous and well-known, if not the most famous, pop culture icon of the 20th and 21st centuries. She is seen as an important figure to many women and actresses, and her previous residence should be preserved.
