Comments for Public Posting: I support Jamie York's appointment to the city ethics commission. As I am a member of the Sun Valley Neighborhood Council, I am in full support of Jamie York as she is advocating for transparency so that we Angelinos can see what business is being conducted behind closed doors. We Angelinos deserve transparency and need to know what deals are being done in our neighborhoods, deals such as new buildings, contracts, business, etc. that affect the landscape of our neighborhoods and personal lives.

Comments for Public Posting: RE: Council File 23-1200-S130 Support Jamie York City Ethic Commission Appointment One small vote for the LA City Council, one giant leap toward bringing honesty and integrity to the City of Los Angeles That is what will happen when Jamie York becomes a LA City Ethics Commission member. Ms. York will bring her tireless determination to foster sunshine and honesty among all who hold public positions of trust, from volunteer neighborhood council and board and commission members to those entrusted with city-wide elected offices and their staffs and those members of the public who want to influence the decisions these public servants make. Controller Mejia is to be commended for nominating Ms. York for this position because he recognizes what the editorial staff of the LA Times and the hundreds of NC members know who have worked with Ms. York on long overdue reform to the broken-failed, often ignored current Municipal Lobbying Ordinance. Ms. York will bring her second-to-none expertise, high ethical standards, and understanding that transparency to all members of the public of bias and interests is necessary for all those seeking favor from city officials and those who can influence, grant or withhold that favor. Jamie York City Ethic Commission Appointment

One small vote for the LA City Council, one giant leap toward bringing honesty and integrity to the City of Los Angeles

That is what will happen when Jamie York becomes a LA City Ethics Commission member. Ms. York will bring her tireless determination to foster sunshine and honesty among all who hold public positions of trust, from volunteer neighborhood council and board and commission members to those entrusted with city-wide elected offices and their staffs and those members of the public who want to influence the decisions these public servants make.

Controller Mejia is to be commended for nominating Ms. York for this position because he recognizes what the editorial staff of the LA Times and the hundreds of NC members know who have worked with Ms. York on long overdue reform to the broken-failed, often ignored current Municipal Lobbying Ordinance. Ms. York will bring her second-to-none expertise, high ethical standards, and understanding that transparency to all members of the public of bias and interests is necessary for all those seeking favor from city officials and those who can influence, grant, or withhold that favor.
