Comments for Public Posting: Dear Los Angeles City Councilmembers: On Friday, August 18 there was a hard-to-follow change made to item #13. The item is Council File 23-1200-S130 - Jamie York / City Ethics Commission / Commission Appointment We are confused that the Rules, Elections and Intergovernmental Relations Committee waived consideration of the nomination and sent it to full council with no discussion, only for CM Monica Rodriguez to amend, with no explanation, to move to disapprove Ms. York's appointment. In just seven seconds, the meaning of a YES vote was flipped 180 degrees. Ms. York appears to be a qualified candidate, with a proven track record of effective, volunteer work in the service of good government. Further, her appointment would help resolve the lack of quorum that has prevented the Ethics Commission from meeting at all. We would like to see this nomination brought back for reconsideration as soon as possible, so that the public can be heard and can hear from their elected officials on the reasoning behind this significant vote. We have asked that our CM Kevin de Leon so move, and hope that all members of City Council will do so. Thank you, Kim Cooper & Richard Schave Esotouric <http://www.esotouric.com>
