Comments for Public Posting: The desire for LA is to allow it to flourish in all portions. Housing, jobs, remediation from drugs, safe spaces are always the desire. The reality is that the cost for all I have stated are expensive. A budget says what are the priorities and what is in the heart. If our mayor's budget has funds to help (and I mean help) eradicate these issues, then it is essential to implement it. Thank you

Comments for Public Posting: I see a lot of motorhomes near 54th street and Arlington that have a lot of graffiti on them with homeless people living inside. Therefore as I would like to see this remedied, I support the Mayor's efforts with her budget particularly as it relates to her homeless initiatives and RV program with Inside Safe. We need to see this fixed so I support the Mayor. We also have people blocking the alleys by parking there illegally. We need more police to help enforce keeping our streets and alleys free, therefore I support her efforts in making Angelenos safe and building our police department. Belinda Rideout Clark

Comments for Public Posting: The Griffith Observatory Zoom classroom changed my Special Education 4-6 graders' lives this year. They loved the interactive program on the SMART Board and the worksheet packet to complete in class. Please fund this excellent program as it would be so important to increase students' interest in Science. Thanks, Nancy McNally

Comments for Public Posting: Mayor Karen Bass met with us in Echo Park this past Saturday. She took all our questions and answered them - indeed - she deepened our questions. She is wisdom empowered by straightforward openness and grace. Wherever she leads, I will follow.
