Comments for Public Posting: Vote no on this ignorant and uneducated attempt at performance activism. We already know Hernandez and Raman are antisemitic people at heart - Arabic countries can attack Israel all they want without a single condemnation from this group, but the moment Israel dares to fight back we get a Hernandez-Raman word salad. Why do you think that is? Not a word about the Arab League's genocide of Jewish people in the 20th century, but immediate condemnation here. Antisemitism remains a significant problem on the left and the further left you go, the more hatred there is. Maybe if Eunisses Hernandez and Nithya Raman bothered to learn history, world politics, middle eastern culture....they'd question why is it that Israel allows Muslim people to visit and become citizens but none of the Islamic nations allow Jewish people? Jews aren't allowed into Gaza. But prior to 10/7, many Gazans were allowed into Israel. My hope is Hernandez and Raman wise up and read a book for once in their uneducated lives, but I doubt they can put down their glasses of bigotry long enough to manage.
