Comments for Public Posting: Requiring term limits seems to be a way to remove Neighborhood Councils from existence. Volunteers spent countless hours trying to help their communities and CM Rodriguez want to remove them. Why? Neighborhood Councils currently have the option to have a youth seat. Due to homework, afterschool activities, and time constraints this option is not necessarily good for the youth. This is a bad idea.

Comments for Public Posting: The motion to impose term limits on Neighborhood Councils assumes at least two things: 1) that there is competition for the Council seats because of the overwhelming number of candidates vying for the seats, and, 2) that inexperience in fulfilling the duties of the Council member is good. I do not share either of those opinions and am opposed to the motion.
