Comments for Public Posting: Members of the LA City Council, My comment regarding the proposed motion is very short. As a stakeholder of the City of LA I would like to live and experience a city whereby its residents and visitors practice humility, humility toward one another. A civilization without mutual respect and trust is actually doomed, as no values are co-attributed to and by its citizens. Life should be lived, not fought for, and the current state of affairs forces far too many to fight and defend themselves for their belief or mere needs. As the trusted elected officials for this city I would urge you to pass this motion, so as to afford freedom and security of practice and movement for all. Thank you for your service to our community.
