Re: Selection of authors for ballot arguments, November 5, 2024 Election

Dear Ms. Wolcott,

As provided by Section 605 of the City Election Code, with the approval of the Rules, Elections, and Intergovernmental Relations Committee, I am designating the following persons or associations to write arguments and rebuttal arguments in favor of the adoption of measures to be placed on the November 5, 2024 election ballot. As directed by Section 605(c) of the City Election Code I have given precedence to elected officials who have submitted applications to write ballot arguments.

Measure DD Independent Redistricting Commission for the City of Los Angeles:
Los Angeles City Council President Paul Krekorian

Measure ER City Ethics Commission Authority and Operational Independence:
Los Angeles City Council President Paul Krekorian

Measure FF Los Angeles Fire and Police Pensions; Peace Officers:
Los Angeles City Councilmember Bob Blumenfield

Measure HH City Governance, Appointments and Elections:
Los Angeles City Council President Paul Krekorian

Measure II City Administration and Operations:
Los Angeles City Council President Paul Krekorian

Measure LL Independent Redistricting Commission for the Los Angeles Unified School District: Common Cause

As Section 605(g) further provides that the author of each of these arguments may select nine other persons to co-sign a single 300-word argument, I encourage the authors designated above to include the other applicants as co-signatories of these arguments. I suggest that Common Cause work with LAUSD Board member Tanya Ortiz Franklin in drafting the argument in favor of Measure LL. I will write the argument in favor of Measure DD in collaboration with Councilmember Nithya Raman, and the argument in favor of Measure HH with Councilmember Tim McOsker.

I have received no applications to write arguments against the measures listed above, but designate the authors listed above to submit rebuttals of any potential arguments against these measures.

Very truly yours,

Paul Krekorian
President, Los Angeles City Council
