Comments for Public Posting: My Best Western in Woodland Hills is losing business to hotels in neighboring cities such as Calabasas and Thousand Oaks due to affordability. Thousand Oaks' transient tax is 10%, and they do not have LA's Ordinance requirements nor the excessive minimum wage and insurance issues. I also have a motel in Wilmington, and neighboring Torrance continues to earn business. You guys at the City of LA are continuing to create rules to push business outside of LA. Forget about about new development, LA's existing hotels will be going out of business at this rate.
