Comments for Public Posting: The brutal reality of Vietnam's dog and cat meat trade demands immediate action. Millions of innocent animals endure unimaginable suffering, subjected to horrific cruelty in the name of consumption. I support City Council File 25-0193 to end dog and cat meat in Vietnam. I am against the abuse and killing of dogs and cats. I urge Los Angeles to stop this practice. Please vote yes. "This has to stop now. No animal should be treated this way. They all need loving homes!!! Please stop this bullying and violence against animals ???????? Dogs and cats are human friends! Your generation will be responsible for your mistakes!!! Stop it!!! Where is your pity, because dogs and cats are living creatures!!! They feel pain, just like you do! A dog IS A HUMAN FRIEND! How can you torture them, mock them, beat them, torture them, broadcast them, burn them and throw them alive into boiling water??? ?????????????????????? PLEASE HELP ???????? STOP EATING DOGS AND CATS !!!

Please vote yes. While on holiday in Vietnam recently, I accidentally saw a crate of dogs in a private market, with dogs piled on top of each other. I'm guessing the bottom dogs were suffocating, and all dogs were destined to be killed. While looking, a security guard came angrily towards me so I left. I was so disturbed by this scene, that I immediately booked a flight out of the country, and left the next day.

Therefore, I strongly urge the Los Angeles City Council to support File #25-0193 and solidify this sister city relationship with Hanoi with a clear mandate against the dog and cat meat trade. Comments for Public Posting: Together we should be able to end the cruel dog and cat meat trade in Hanoi. As a sister city to Hanoi, and being LA such a pet-friendly place, how can we befriend with a city whose political class has nothing to say about the egregious conditions in which pets are kept, whether if destined for food or company! Animals are bred in filthy cages, no vets to look after them. Pups are seorated from their moms well before the breast feeding period is over. Such lack of care explain why illegal breeding is such a health risk not only for pets, but for humans as well. Please, do your part: Help pets. Remind Vietnam that we expect to leave behind the worse part of tradition on the twentyone century. Thank you

This approach aligns with the spirit of the recent U.S.-Vietnam Comprehensive Strategic Partnership, which encourages such collaborations and offers mutual benefits, including increased economic and cultural exchanges. By conditioning this partnership on animal welfare, we can create a better compassionate world for all of our children.

Comments for Public Posting: I am writing to urge strongly that you seriously reconsider your Sister Province partnership with Hanoi, Vietnam. Vietnam still allows dogs and cats to be horribly abused and brutally killed for food. These poor animals suffer their entire lives in filthy, feces-encrusted raised wire cages in dire misery only to be slaughtered in the most horrific of ways—tortured by electrocution, hammer strikes to their head, hanging, being beaten to death, having their throats slit, being burned alive with a blowtorch or thrown into a vat of boiling water while still alive. In many places, dogs are killed in full view of other caged dogs who tremble with terror. They are fed rotten, moldy garbage full of chili peppers unfit for any animals to eat, and they are not given water. In addition, beloved pets are often stolen and sold to these slaughterhouses, where they meet the same horrific fate. Puppies who die of disease are tossed away like trash, often left in front of cages to rot while their mothers watch and cry out in despair. Mayor Christopher Chung of Palisades Park, New Jersey, has already shown his rejection of the dog meat trade in no uncertain terms. As reported in the Korea Times last year, he recently rejected a visit from exchange students from the South Korean friendship city, Incheon Ganghwa County, due to its dog meat trade. In California, I understand that your own Los Angeles City Council unanimously passed a resolution supporting legislation or administrative action that would request the governments of South Korea, China, Vietnam, Indonesia, and Cambodia to ban the sale of dog meat and enforce their animal protection laws. On behalf of companion animal-loving people worldwide, we ask that you follow these bold leads by not remaining silent in the face of such abhorrent cruelty. Please urge Hanoi officials to shut down all dog farms, slaughterhouses, markets, dog meat restaurants, and truckers transporting dogs to their inevitable fates. An online petition calling for your support in ending such horrors perpetrated in South Korea is in progress: <https://chnng.it/tJZfW6wg>. Thank you for your consideration of this urgent matter. Sincerely Vivien Smith Victoria, Australia 3021

Comments for Public Posting: I ?? support City Council File #25-0193 to the core to end dog and cat meat in Vietnam! I urge Los Angeles to vote YES! I have been boycotting everything and anything that is Vietnamese for years! If a product is made in Vietnam I refuse it! I boycott all Vietnamese restaurants in the States! The ONLY reason for all this is because of Vietnam's historical animal abuses and tortures. As a prospective sister city, Vietnam must ban and enforce the end of animal tortures!
