Comments for Public Posting: We the people in Los Angeles are doing everything we can to save money right now. Voting on increases will only prevent us from going out and spending money even more. Which then lowers tax revenue and created even more problems in the city. PLEASE understand that we are all just barely getting by right now and STOP raising taxes. If you drop prices, we will go out and spend more. The higher the prices go, the less we have to spend. This is specifically regarding the parking meters, but includes everything you are raising prices on.
