I know Mayor Bass is hyper-focused on the Olympics with her time and our money, but those of us who live here rather than visiting for a few weeks need to be the priority too. Closing crowded shelters causing the death of even MORE healthy young animals and reducing the force that investigates animal abuse is horrific for our city. Stop this insanity and REJECT this budget proposal!! Silenced animals are depending on YOU to do what's right and just!

PLEASE from the bottom of my heart do not send these innocent animals to their death sentence. If you have no empathy for them, I can give you other reasons not to- it will ruin your career. They're already doing damage control on social media with the THOUSANDS of comments pleading with me to please give this a second thought. Spay and neuter laws and breeding laws will cut costs to shelters DRASTICALLY. PLEASE consider implementing that instead.

Warmly,
Rachel Harris

Dear Mayor Bass and Members of the Los Angeles City Council,

I am writing to express my deep concern regarding the proposed $5 million budget cut to Los Angeles Animal Services as outlined in the 2025–2026 city budget. Reducing funding and staff for our already struggling shelters will almost certainly lead to more pets being abandoned on the streets, overcrowded conditions, and the unnecessary euthanasia of healthy, adoptable animals.

Animal Services needs more support, not less. Cutting the budget will not only worsen the city's animal welfare crisis but also hurt the countless Angelenos who rely on these shelters to find lost pets, adopt companions, and assist in community efforts to manage the stray population humanely.

I urge you to reconsider these harmful cuts and prioritize humane, effective solutions that reflect the values of compassion and community that Los Angeles should stand for.

As a resident, supporter, and voter, this issue is deeply important to me. Please do not turn your back on the animals and people who depend on your leadership.

Sincerely,

Lissette Schettini

The submit button for the public comment forum does not work on mobile so here is my comment for council file number: 25-0600

I strongly oppose the proposed cuts to animal services. Our shelters are already under-resourced and urgently need more support, not less. Instead, I advocate for defunding of the LAPD and a thorough audit of inflated government salaries to ensure public funds are used responsibly. There is no reason the chief of police needs to make 400k at the expense of animal welfare.
