Comments for Public Posting: I support no change of single family zoning. Changing zoning betrays the agreement home owners made with the city when the property was bought. I vote for Option B, for now. It is the least least offensive.

Comments for Public Posting: I think SB9 is great, is what we need to lower housing cost in LA, but it should be implemented only in "C", "M" and "Multi Family" zone properties, but not in "R1" or more restrictive zones properties. However, problems that "DWP" creates for developers and their staff's lack of responsibly toward the residents of this beautiful City of Los Angeles will not allow the full use of SB9 idea.

Comments for Public Posting: I respectfully request your support for the Planning Department's Plan B on CF #25-1083. Although we are disappointed at the lack of local control granted by SB 79 and that our Housing Element is not allowed to be implemented without interference of SB 79, we support Plan B as the most equitable and responsible of options being offered.
