Comments for Public Posting: Yes, I am a resident here in Los Angeles and I have a lot of lived experience here in your city. Our city and I wanted to just let you know that the paying out so much money to hire New recruits without a change of training is a big mistake. We can't be just throwing money at the justice department. The money needs to be accounted for and we need to spend it wisely because there's thousands of people dying in the street every year and we owe it to ourselves to be the better person and and try to make a change because every century we get a new chance and we make the same mistakes and are worse I understand this is very hard with this deficit and and for you to be governing with with less money cuz you're used to and I might hats off to you for for even coming today and and trying to tackle this situation and I appreciate you so much all of you. I have a lived experience of applying for an LAPD position many years ago and also at the same time applying for a sheriff deputy position and I understand how the goings are and I probably you do. You don't know how it is because you probably never applied for those jobs but I'm here and if you don't have any questions you can feel free to call me and at anytime or send me an email and I'll give you my number
