Comments for Public Posting: As a Hollywood native and a lover of history in our city, I am writing to implore you to please landmark the Hollywood Center Motel. I hardly recognize my city anymore and the iconic places that make it not only legendary, but a vital tourist attraction, are being torn down or left to fall into disrepair by those who have been entrusted to take care of these sites. This includes the neon signs that were taken after the fire at the Motel, which was an already easily avoidable tragedy. I certainly hope you will take the words of people like me seriously. Thank you, Pearl Charles
