Comments for Public Posting: Another stupid money wasting measure proposed and seconded by Johnnie Boy Lee. Why don't you spend our money for worthwhile things like fixing streets, going after copper wire thefts, instead of trying to extort more money out of us by trying to increase our property taxes, which is an end-run around Proposition 13. Too bad The Valley did not secede from the City of Los Angeles, because people like you, John Lee are ruining it for the people who really matter.
