Council File No: 26-0923

Comments for Public Posting: While this council file motion refers to those city employees who work part time and who earn less than $1,000 per pay period, the council file motion does not provide any income limits on those city employees who would be eligible to participate in such a program should it eventually be adopted. It would be important to place an income limit on those employees who would be eligible to participate in a micro loan program.
