Comments for Public Posting: These hoodlums are reckless and a danger to society, showing no regard for private or public property and the lives of others. They are accountable to no one. They do not listen to or follow any laws. They need to face profound consequences to send a message to others and make this problem go away. We do not need a band-aid, such as making it more difficult for them to commit their crimes (e.g., blocking a road); they move to another intersection. • Any vehicle taking part in the show – confiscate and destroy within 10 days; assess a $5,000 fine. • Driver charged with all current vehicle code violations, reckless and dangerous driving, blocking traffic, blocking safety vehicles, etc. Minimum 6-month jail, first time. Minimum 12-month jail, second time. – Each time, impose a $10,000 fine. The fine must be paid before the driver can be released from jail. • Sideshow vehicles – confiscate and hold for 6 months; release them after paying all fees and $5,000. • Underage drivers and underage sideshow participants (executors) are assessed a $5,000 fine. Increase the fine by $5,000 each subsequent time.
